

EXCURSIONS

How many days you got? Want to see more of Panama City and surrounding?— all including a full cooler in transit. Our fan favorites are either the Jungle Safari or Rum & Cigar tours. Mix and match as you choose.

All our excursions are private and based on a 6-person minimum for pricing.

Waterfall Volcano Hike in El Valle de Anton -

Hope you got some rest because this hike sucks if you're hungover. You travel 2 hours from Panama City to El Valle de Anton, an inactive volcano. Hiking up from the crater town along the ridge you will take in amazing views while scaling some rocks and ultimately finding the waterfall with pool as your reward.

If your group is active and likes the outdoors, then this is perfect for you. Difficulty level: medium.

Price: $99 per person

Panama Canal & City Tour -

We know you want to get to know this city, and why wouldn't you? It's amazing. But there is no need to get up at the crack of dawn to do so. We start our City & Canal Tour after lunch and with a cold drink in hand. Also, have you heard about this thing called the Panama Canal? It may not be on your bucket list but you would probably be kicking yourself when you get back home and EVERYONE asks you about it and you never went to see it! It's actually pretty cool.

Price: $94 per person

Monkey Island Jungle Safari - Wake up at your leisure and head to the Panama Canal for a day of fun in the jungle, venturing out to Monkey Island in the jungle that accompanies the world-famous Panama Canal. With coolers filled, you'll be chilling while you monkey around in this pristine jungle backdrop... just watch out for the crocs. Alternatively, you can extend this and do some bass fishing. Great opportunity for a photo op.

Price: $99 per person

Helicopter Tour over Canal & Skyline Take to the skies for the ultimate city and canal tour – in your private helicopter. Leaving from the local airport right outside downtown you will fly over the Panama Canal and whip through the high rises of downtown.

This is truly the best way to explore the city and canal.

PRICE: $535 per 3 pax (pricing may vary with fuel surcharge)

Whitewater Rafting Mamoni River

The most action packed activity around Panama City. Viable from June to March based on water levels. Begins by picking up guests at Panama City around 7:00 a.m. We will arrive to the put in an hour and a half later to start Mamoni Panama white water river rafting around 9:30am.

We should arrive to the take out zone around 3:30 p.m. and we should be back to the original pick up place about 5:30 p.m.

PRICE : $175 per person

Caribbean Snorkelling & Spanish Forts

Take a break from the Pacific and head to the Caribbean coast about 1.5 hours away where you'll take in the tropical waters and snorkel around some reefs, chill on the beach, and then head to some colonial Spanish forts once attacked by the famed Captain Morgan. Want some more action, then jump into the jungle close by for some ziplining action (additional cost).

PRICE: $155 per person

Distillery & Craft Brewery Tour

You will get a behind-the-scenes look at how the top-rated, award-winning rum is made while smelling & taste-testing the core versions as it goes from raw sugar cane to purified gold. See the process first hand, get some excellent photo ops, and did I mention - free beer & rum shot. This is a private tour to your group so it really lasts as long as you want it to, but on average it goes from 1 hour -2 hours max.

PRICE: $59 per person

Rum and Cigars Historic Tour

A fan favorite, Panama is known for its rum, so we take you to Casco Viejo to a local distillery and tasting room. From there we walk through the old cobble stone streets to compare with aged rum while stopping in for some hand rolled cigars.

Includes the rum, cigars are extra.

PRICE: $85 per person

Ziplining

Take to the jungle treetops in Gamboa where the start for the monkey island is. This can easily be teamed up with the monkey island activity. It is 45 min from city.

PRICE: $125 per person

Combo: Monkey Island + Zipline = $155 per person

Night Safari - Crocodile Scouting

Explore the Panama Canal waterway at night, venturing into the jungle by boat to see the jungle come alive at night and go in search of caymans & crocodiles when they are most active. Activity runs for 2 hours from boat launch.

PRICE: $99 per person

4x4 ATV Jungle Trek

A fan favorite - cruise up into the cloud forest of Cerro Azul above Panama City and take the ATVs offroading into the jungle. Start off the track to get a feel for it and then let's get muddy!

Drive time to the location - 1.5 hours

ATV trek - 2 hours

PRICE:

$135 pp (transport to site not included) - transport costs vary depending on group size
